“ I met Jay when I was just a little girl. Jay was probably 19 years old. His dad was great friends with my dad. And then my dad and Jay became super close. Jay was like the son he never had. With that being said Jay ended up being like a big brother my sister and I never had. Jay was hilarious, he was so much fun. Always a jokester but yet he had such a huge heart and would do anything for anyone. Jay has helped me in some rough times in my life. You could always count on him! He truly is one of the best guys I have ever met. We are going to miss him so much!
