“ Just learned of Jim's passing by a phone call from Fiscal Tax. Jim prepared the tax return for many years. First found him when they were located on the south side. Followed him when Fiscal tax moved onto east location. When my husband passed, I continued to have him do my tax returns all these years. He was a true gentleman, very efficient and so pleasant and always with a smile. Will certainly miss him.

“ Our family will always remember Jim as a simple quiet man. A member of our Church family. Very dependable, consistent, and reliable through many years. A pillar to our Church. His love to our Church will always be remembered. The years he helped us with our taxes. And his service to our country. Thank you Jim.
