“ Uncle Jimmy Joe will always stick out in my memory for his sense of humor. It came to him honestly through his father - my grandfather Kenny Marshall. The oldest memory I have of him was when grandma bought a new refrigerator and the old one was not unplugged. I was very young and gullible. He convinced me to get inside and let him close the door to see if the light stayed on! Every memory is of his laugh and his dry commentary - usually saying something like you should not listen to me and laugh so hard! I did get the last laugh that time. After grandma chewed him out his practical jokes were more practical! I saw him when I visited a few years ago after he rode his Harley as color guard for returning KIA solders. He never forgot. I am most grateful for his affection and attention over the years he has had for my mother. It was like he was always there. And now he is gone

“ So very sorry to hear that uncle Jimmy has passed. He was my mothers brother , they had the same mother.I met Jimmy in the 50's when he and I were just kids, we were two years apart in age. He and his mom and dad came to Bainbridge Georgia to meet my mother, we became fast friends and as adults we stayed in touch. The thing I loved about Jimmy was okhis optimistic outlook on life and his love of his family. He always loved my mother and showed it each time he talked to her. I know his family and friends will miss him, and our prayers will be with you. God bless. Jim Bob Segler and family.
