“ James was my brother and his nick name with the family was JT. I remember always seeing him smile, one of my fondness memories of him, is when he was very young he was in a band. They played on television some and it was aired on channel 40. I remember we all gathered around the television to watch and how proud we felt! I loved to listen to him play and sing! I thought he was a wonderful singer. I was so very young and I don't remember the gentry of the band, I'm thinking bluegrass or country. I just know what every he played or sang was always wonderful. I have so many more memories of him and will treasure them all. Everyone who knew him knew he was a kind and loving man.
