“ Jim was such a cool guy us 6 Popes looked up to. He was always welcome at our house in the neighborhood on Winthrop. Every day time our grandma Kelley saw him walking up the front walk, she'd get all happy and greet him like family. We all did! He was a special friend to my sister Debbie and our family when we growing up. There is a place in our hearts and in heaven for Jim. Our prayers and condolences are with Jim's family and friends. He will be missed!

“ Oh my goodness. SO many memories...a stop at the Rule house on Saturday mornings while delivering The News was never complete without Jimmy, usually wrapped in a towel after the morning shower, grabbing the ping pong paddle and ball, "C'mon, quick game up to 7."
What a laugh, what a spirit! Deeply saddened and yet, I'm smiling. God's Love and mine.

“ *Papa,
you taught me how to love myself even on bad days.
you taught me not to take shit from anyone.
you taught me to have an imagination.
you taught no matter how bad something may be, you'll can always find the good in it too.
you taught me how even if i fall down, 6 times, i better stand up 7.
you taught me what it means to support someone.
you taught me how to be goofy and silly.
you taught me love and
you taught me how to love unconditionally.*

Papa, you taught me everything i needed to know, besides how to live without you.

My JOYful brother, Jim!! What an honor to be named after our Irish Grandfather, James Kelsey O'Leary!! You certainly had so many of his wonderful traits—a delightful smile and profound exuberance to transform the energy in a room just with your presence!! Topped off with a great joke, belly laugh, and a meaningful handshake, and a loving hug..what more can you ask for!!!!

What delight you took in the simple things, such as the wonderment of someone eating pineapple and cottage cheese on toast, and playing a Kazoo like a professional instrument, singing your own song ad-lib when your "friend" could not be found, and so many other stories to tell...

Your Love and Spontaneity lives on Forever in my Heart and
