

James S. Wilson

July 21, 1943 - June 23, 2019

James S. Wilson,

James Seitz Wilson passed away peacefully at the age of 75 on June 23, 2019 in his home. He was born to the late Herman F. and Mary Jane (Seitz) Wilson on July 21, 1943 in Evansville. James later moved to Fort Wayne where he graduated from Fort Wayne North High School. Fort Wayne is where he met the only love of his life. James and Nancy (Weaver) Wilson were married in 1964.

James was a member of the United States Army. He proudly served this nation in Vietnam from 1967-69. After returning home, he attended and graduated from Indiana University. Settling in Indianapolis, James became the General Manager for WNTS 1590 AM Christian radio station. James was a loving son, husband, father, granddad and great-granddad. He loved his family and sacrificed much of his time to those in need of medical assistance. James was a devoted believer in the Lord, God and Heaven.

James was preceded in death by his parents; step-mother, Dorothy J. Wilson; wife, Nancy Weaver Wilson; and granddaughter, Venessa Marie (Wilson) Earls. James is survived by his son, Miles (Tamera) Wilson of Pendleton; four grandchildren, Malorie, Macey (Alex) Sparacio, Alexandra and Derek; seven great-grandchildren; brother, Tom Wilson of Evansville; and his grand-dog, Willy.

Visitation and funeral services will be private. James final resting place will be next to his beloved wife. Memorial contributions may be made to Wheeler

Mission, 245 North Delaware Street, Indianapolis, IN 46204.

“ I loved listening to WNTS 1590. You had wonderful parents: Your dad and mom used to attend the events for listeners when radio ministers would be in town. I remember meeting your mom and dad when Andrew Wommack was in town (unfortunately she was ill with cancer at the time). May God's presence comfort you while you mourn your father's passing (I'm sure you are very happy for him, in spite of your grief)...
