“ Saying goodbye to a dear friend is never easy, this was Jane a very special friend who i John Waldren and my wife Sheryl and grandson Travis. would come and visit at least twice a year. She would welcome me into her home just like i was family. We would stay up for hours talking of my father and mother or her husband and family. these times i will surely miss my good friend!

To Kevin, Keva and Kent — I am so sorry for your loss. Your dad and my mom grew up together on Jefferson Street, and I grew up there as well. When your parents came to visit your dad's folks, they would always stop by and visit with us too. After my mom passed away in 1985, I continued exchanging Christmas cards with your folks, right up to this year. Jane always had a cheery note to share, and I always looked forward to hearing from her. She was a delight! I will miss her.

I remember you Nancy. Mom talked often of you and your mom. If I remember correctly you lived 3 or 4 houses to the south of Grandma. Thanks for the kind words.
