Such sad news. I have worked with Jane (and Todd) since the pre-Eve years (when they returned from CO). A wonderful designer with a kind spirit. A truly good person.

I'm better for knowing her. Eve, you have my sincerest condolences.

Sincerely,

Steve Blaising

“ I literally just found out about Jane's passing today. My heart just broke. We were classmates at Herron and later worked with her and Todd on some projects. I always remember her quiet strength and her love for (at the time) her new baby Eve. I pray that Eve, her brother and significant other all find peace during this time. As we approach Thanksgiving tomorrow, I know I'm thankful to have known her.

“ Jane gave an old, (very old) “lady” a life. A life full of interesting, multi-talented and loving adults. A life of learning with Jane every Wednesday ... a day full of blessings.

Jane taught me to be brave ... with my brushes and in life.

Jane demonstrated humility - I'm still learning.

Jane was a lady. She was everything we should be to others and to ourselves.

Jane giggled often to my delight. A child was hidden beneath her artistic craft.

Jane was so proud of the children in her classes. We spoke often of their creative abilities - something the adult class envied.

Thank you, Jane, family and friends for the life I will return to after this cloud lifts. God bless you Eve

“ This news is heartbreaking. Jane was instrumental and the force behind my daughter's creative growth and achievements. Jane's impact on her life will be enduring. I know many others feel the same.

“ Jane was a special person- and definitely a calming influence on Todd! I had known Todd since Grade School in Speedway, and we shared an apartment in Greenwood when he met Jane at Block's department store. I remember him telling me about meeting her. I was Best Man at their 1988 wedding- I was so flattered to be asked. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family, especially Eve.

“ Jane will be greatly missed. I knew Todd and Jane through my work with Todd at Kelley. Todd was always creative and energetic. A delight to work with as a college. He always spoke so fondly of both Jane and Eve that I felt I knew them both well. When meeting Jane, it was so evident how caring of a person she was and how well she complimented Todd. Eve, this is a very difficult time. You are in our thoughts and prayers. Best wishes as you continue to share their love and joy with others in the future.

“ I was a friend of her late husband, Todd Roberson, who was a fellow student at Speedway High School. I was a few years older than Todd, but I remember very well when he married Jane (I was at the ceremony!). She was such a sweet, good natured person who was a calming influence on her husband, who was engagingly boisterous and extremelly outgoing. He was a great guy (incredibly smart, kind, and also musically inclined) who married a wonderful girl (very gifted. kind, and artistic), and I knew that it was the perfect match for both of them, a "match made in Heaven." I miss them both and I wish Eve the best in her future endeavors.

“ Jane was my artistic rock. Her gentle voice, demeanor and sweet smile were always a breath of fresh air in my life. She would ground me, encourage me and celebrate my successes. She gave me a place in her studio and in her heart. And for that, I am eternally grateful.
