“ So sorry to read about the loss of someone so dear to all of you, but God's word the Bible does give us hope of seeing our dead loved ones again. Jesus said at John the 5th chapter verses 28 and 29 at the dead will live again.

“ Josh and Wendy I pray for you both to find comfort in her passing. She is with God. I know this is a very difficult time for both of you. Trust in God's healing powers. May your hearts mend and somehow you find peace. Hugs and love sent to you and your family. God bless. Grandma is with our Lord.

“ Ah... well I met you 4 years ago and I remember thinking man how blessed is Josh to still have his grandmother, as I told him I would do anything to have mine still. I remember times I did her nails for her and clipped lotioned and painted her toes. She loved it. She said a prayer for me and thanked me for being her "nurse" and you and god gave me peace when you took your last breathe. You will be missed by all your family. To the family I am truly sorry for your loss. But remember one thing she loves each one of you and more than anything she wanted her family close and most importantly she wanted her family to know Gods love. So each day seek the love she would want you to seek in the Lord and know that he is with her.

Although I never met Janet (or old Grandma as she was called and I knew her) I feel that I know her and her family so well. I know that she loved her family and was dearly loved by them. They will find it hard without her in the coming weeks, months and years but she will always be with them and they will take comfort that she is now with Jesus in a place that has no pain or tears. May she rest in peace and rise in glory..... my love and sympathy to all of her family and especially to Janet, her daughter xx

Grandma, for 35 years,I was grandma's baby. You taught me so much. You gave me so much. I remember you saying,"sis,you know grandma loves you?" I know you loved me. I'll never forget that. I'm so lost without you. But I just keep telling myself,that as bad as I need you,Good needs you more. Rest in peace, beautiful. Continue watching over us. I'll always miss you. They say it gets easier with time. But I don't think it will. I just know that you'd want me to be happy. So I'm gonna try my best. Goodnight,my angel. Sending all my hugs and kisses to heaven for you.
