“ I was Jay’s middle school band director. Jay was always in a good mood and regularly cracking jokes. Sorry to hear of his passing. Prayers for his family.

“ Jay was my high school friend when I didn't have many. A fellow "band geek". We walked together at graduation. We shared "battle scars" after a crazy concert we both just happened to attend. He was a truly kind, wonderful soul. RIP Jay, you will be sorely missed. My condolences to all his friends and family.

Jay and I went to high school together. He was so kind. He had such a great laugh! His wit was razor sharp. His internal band name generator pairing two absolutely incongruous words that MADE TOTAL SENSE was legendary and always a highlight of my day. Jay, you will be missed!

Jay lived down the street from me and we would always hang out and play Atari on occasions. He was always a funny guy! He will be missed. His parents are like family to me.
