

Jean Caldwell

April 15, 1922 - February 24, 2018

Emogene “Jean” Marquette Caldwell, 95, of Indianapolis, passed away on February 24th at her home. She was born April 15, 1922, to Grover and Minnie Marquette. Jean grew up in Seymour and Indianapolis and graduated from Tech High School. She married Charles Caldwell on August 3, 1940. They raised their family in Indianapolis and Plainfield.

She was a member of the Double Dozen Homemakers Club and retired from the Waffle House Commissary.

She enjoyed baking and crocheting for family and friends and will be remembered for her gentle, generous spirit.

Her family will treasure forever memories of her life and her love for each of them. She is survived by son Chuck (Rosie) Caldwell, daughter and caregiver Martha Sue Waddell, daughter Pam (Roger) Boswell, six grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband Charles P. Caldwell, sisters Alis Weddle and Mary Lou Nave, and brother Ray Marquette.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that memorial contributions be made to the Alzheimer's Association (local patient/family support) or Cure Alzheimer's Fund (research).

A celebration of her life will be held on Saturday, March 10, at noon at Gethsemane Lutheran Church, 6810 E. 10th Street, Indianapolis.

“ So sorry to learn of the passing of such a warm and wonderful lady. I know she will be missed very much by all those touched by her kindness. Her home was always open and so was her heart; Always filled with love.

May you find comfort through family and friends during this difficult time.
