“ I didn't really know Jean personally except for seeing her at Kroger. I always liked going through her line. She was smart as a whip and such a hard worker. She was really someone to look up to. So sorry for your loss. I've missed her ever since she retired.

Jackie, I am so truly sorry for your family's loss. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you, during this time of such deep sorrow. your grandma was a very special lady. I had many conversations with her at Krogers over the years, she was always working or on her way home to baby sit one or two of her grandchildren. she was such a sweet lady. May she walk with the angels, May she soar with the eagles. May she be held in God's tender embrace until you all meet again. Love Amy
