“ Just learned about Jeff yesterday. I really loved him. I worked at Logo 7 a few years ago. He was quite the character. Always made jokes and laughter. Enjoyed being around him. This made me very sad💔

“ Jeff was my 1st supervisor on the night shift at Logo 7. He was so damn funny he would wait until your rack of shirts were full and then pop his head between them and scare the shit out of you . He was a good man and will be very missed 😞😞 my heart goes out to all the Hobbs family I know how close you all are . I'm sending love your way 🙏

“ What a privilege it was to know Mr. Jeff Hobbs. He was always happy and loving God. I will always remember how he helped so many people. It seemed that he was forever running errands, going to a store, mowing grass, and doing whatever needed to be done to help others.

We are saddened by his passing, but I am sure he is in Glory with Jesus.

Sent in memorial,

“ My heart is so saddened by the loss of Jeff. Memories of all the gatherings and getting together at Granny and Papaw Ford's. It seemed as though we cousins were always together, but that was okay. I miss those days and I will miss you. But I will keep those memories alive in my heart forever. I will be looking for your shining soul in the midnight skies so shine bright and rest in peace.

“ As everyone knows Jeff was a huge Rolling Stones/Mick Jagger fan and I will never forget us going to the concert years ago. Jeff never sat down. He danced in his Mick Jagged way thru the whole concert. I had fond memories of him at the Raincheck Bar also. RIP Jeff and rock on in heaven.
