

Jeffrey Trudge M. Sanborn

February 18, 1970 - January 31, 2007

Jeffrey Trudge Sanborn, 36, of Indianapolis, passed from his earthly life on Wednesday morning January 31, 2007. Jeff left us the same way he came into this world: peacefully, quietly, but not without challenges. He was noted for his dry wit, joking, pranks and his deep baby blue eyes. He was born February 18, 1970 in Indianapolis. Over his short lifetime, he had been active in boy scouts numerous sports: bowling, drag racing, wrestling, table tennis and badminton. He was a graduate of Arsenal Tech High School and worked at Ford Motor Company (Visteon) for ten years. Jeff enjoyed all his friends, helping younger kids with their bowling and taught them anything they wanted to know about the ONLY car in his life: the Ford Mustang. He could always be easily located either watching wrestling, NASCAR races or helping work on his or other friends cars. He was a member of the Southside Mustangs Association and Zion Evangelical United Church of Christ. He is survived by his wife, Kelli; daughters, Kayla, Korrina and Kelsey; step-sons, Jonathan and Jacob; mother, LaVerne Sanborn; brother, Brian Bustle; aunts, Cindy Sanborn, Dodi Williams, Claralee Stevenson, Beverlee Richardson, Mary Gannon, Laurie Sanborn and Amanda Begley; uncles, James Gannon, Jerry Williams and James Hurt; and numerous other family members. Services will be Tuesday, February 6 at noon at Shirley Brothers Washington Memorial Chapel, 9606 E. Washington Street, with visitation Monday, February 5 from 3:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. Memorial contributions may be made to the Yellow Rose Unit of Ruth Lilly Hospice, I-65 at 21st St., PO Box 1367, Indianapolis,

IN 46206.
