July 22, 1952 - April 17, 2026

Joey Lavon Cochran,

73, of Indianapolis, passed away April 17, 2026. He was born July 22, 1952 in West Plains, Missouri to the late Jewell Geran Cochran and Lois E. Harbour Cochran. Joey worked for IPS for 44 years before retiring in 2011. He enjoyed watching and playing baseball & the St. Louis Cardinals were his favorite team.

According to Joey, he was “the plainest guy you’ll ever meet”, but that’s what drew people to him. He had great taste in music and was very funny and had a great wit about him, and he could be charming too. Joey had a sweet smile and a laugh that was unique to him. He was incredibly intelligent and was who you would call in an emergency, he could handle anything!

Most of all, Joey loved his family. He adored his grandson, Isaac, and loved taking him on baseball trips, and spoiling him to no end!

“ I enjoyed growing up with Joe when we were young. Had a great time when we visited each other. It was fun talking sports with Joe. I am sorry for the family's loss. It was good to see him in September when we were in Indianapolis. I will not be able to be at Service Sunday because I have just had bypass surgery. Dallas Cochran

“ When I first met Joe he was dating my sister Shirley. After getting to know him and his wonderful family it was a honor to walk Shirley down the aisle in marriage. Over the years in family functions, playing softball and bowling together we had a great time. It was fun kidding each other about his Cardinals and my Cubs. All of my children and relatives loved him as a great uncle and friend. We all will miss him a lot. I'm really sorry for his family's loss. Rest in peace brother Joe.
