

John P. Crowley

October 22, 1939 - January 22, 2024

John Paul Crowley, 84, of Indianapolis, passed away January 22, 2024. He was born October 22, 1939 in Boston, MA, to the late John Francis and Anne (Mitchell) Crowley. John attended Northeastern University and St. Bonaventure University where he received his bachelor's degree. He earned his Master's degree from Boston College. He did further graduate studies and was an adjunct faculty member at Rutgers and Fairleigh Dickinson Universities, and completed his post graduate work at the Alfred Adler Institute of Psychotherapy, Chicago. John married the love of his life, Patricia Marie Sullivan, August 17, 1963, and joyfully celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary this past summer. He proudly served his country for five years in the U.S. Army and was honorably discharged with the rank of Captain.

John continued his career at the University of St. Francis, Fort Wayne, IN, as the Chair of the Social Work Department and as a staff member at Pancner Psychiatric Services. While in Fort Wayne, he established the Fort Wayne Veteran's Center in the 1980s, which is still operating today, and offers mental health support for veterans and their families. After 40 years of service as a social worker, therapist and advocate for anyone in need, John retired to his lake house on West Otter Lake where he enjoyed time spent with family and friends before finally relocating to Indianapolis.

John was a devout Catholic and longtime member of St. Charles Parish in Fort Wayne, where he was active in the Knights of Columbus and created and facilitated a priest support group for over 20 years. He and his brother, Richard Crowley, created a Catholic trivia board game titled "Is the Pope Catholic?" which was sold around the world in the 1980s. John was an avid golfer; he wrote and published countless newspaper and magazine articles about golf and mental health throughout his career. For over 10 years he patiently and courageously fought Primary Progressive Aphasia, a rare form of dementia. John was creative, warm and witty and enjoyed interacting with everyone along his journey.

John is survived by his loving wife of 60 years, Patricia Crowley; brother, Richard Crowley; children, Sean Crowley (Kamey), Colleen Kuehr (Tim), and Megan Stoltz (Pat); and eight grandchildren, Haley, Mitchell, and Kennedy Crowley; Erin, John, and Patrick Stoltz; and Keaton and Sullivan Kuehr.

“ I am a resident of Robin Run Village in Indianapolis. I meet John in the dining room. As I passed him he was singing and changed my depression for the day. I stopped and told him how much I enjoyed his singing. With the biggest smile he shook his head. Many times later we crossed paths in the tower. I was always looking for him, as he brought sunshine with his singing to my life. Elizabeth Alexander 317-354-7643

“ John was an amazing soul and a gift to all the many lives he touched and enriched on his journey. He was a true gentleman and scholar. I was fortunate to have crossed paths with him in the social work and mental health field and loved his insightful, creative and playful approach and disposition in helping others. May he rest in peace. Dave Cooper

“ I worked with John at PPA for many years. He was always so very kind. He was a wonderful therapist and I was blessed to call him a friend. Many times after he retired and moved away he would still call to catch up on our lives. He was very faith centered and always ready to put a concern of someone in his prayers. My thoughts and prayers are with Pat and his family. Fly high John, and Godspeed.

“ I consider myself extremely fortunate to call John a friend and mentor. Although we’ve not been in contact since he moved away from Fort Wayne, I fondly remember our many rounds of golf where John would use me as a laboratory guinea pig for his newest theory on simplifying swing thoughts and improving the mental side of golf. Although my score typically suffered, I never cared because the time with him was far more important. Caring and kind, quick-witted, but mostly devoted to his faith and family are how I will always remember John. God speed, my friend. To Pat, Sean, Colleen and my dear friend Megan, I’m terribly sorry for your loss - Shane Lee.

“ John and Pat moved to Robin Run quite near the end of John’s life, so my memories are brief. What spoke to me constantly was the devotion shown by Pat. May John rest in peace and may Pat take comfort in the love she showered on him. Her patience in all of this was remarkable.
