

John M. "Jack" Huston

April 29, 1926 - May 4, 2010

84, of Indianapolis, formerly of Greenfield, passed away May 4, 2010. He was born April 29, 1926 to the late Walter C. and Anna (McConnell) Huston. A lifelong resident of Indianapolis, Jack served his country in the U.S. Navy during WWII. He received his master's degree in education from Butler University and served in both education and administrative roles at Lowell, Fall Creek, Sunny Heights, Moorehead, and Eastridge Schools. Jack was a lifetime member of Irvington Presbyterian Church, a member of Sigma Nu fraternity at Butler, an active member of the Red Cross as a volunteer, and head life guard at the Ransburg YMCA and Heather Hills Country Club. Visitation will be Sunday, May 9, 2010 from 3:00 p.m. until the time of services at 5:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Washington Memorial Chapel, 9606 E. Washington St. Jack is survived by his loving wife Barbara ♡Babs♡ (Lembke) Huston, married for 57 years; daughter, Ann (Andy) Clawson; son, Dave (Sandy) Huston; sister, Jean Springer; and grandchildren, Jay, Laura, Nick and Zac. Jack touched the lives of numerous teachers and students throughout his career with his quiet, gentle, but firm manner. His positive influence shaped the lives and careers of many teachers, educators, and administrators. He will be greatly missed by his family and all who knew him. Memorial contributions may be made to Irvington Presbyterian Church, 55 Johnson Ave., Indianapolis, 46219.