“ Hello to the friends and family of Vince. He and I worked together at the DWD. I am so sorry to hear of his loss. I just left him a voice mail checking on him before I found out. Honestly, he felt like a dad to me and was a blessing to have on our team. I will be praying for your family. You have our entire team's condolences. Please keep close to your heart the fond memories you have of Vince. <3

The year was 1979. I was the president of Devon CC, and you were 21 years old and the manager of Devon Cc. I remember how great you were. What ever it took, cutting grass, managing the entire club. You were the best and made my job easy.

Trish & I attended your wedding.

You're the best. Seems like God wanted you to assist in heaven. I will light a candle in church this week on your behalf. Rest in Peace.
