

John T. Oldham

October 27, 1972 - September 15, 2010

37, of Fishers, passed away September 15, 2010. He was born October 27, 1972 in Carmel, IN. John had a passion for fashion, and lived his life following that passion. He managed and owned countless retail stores throughout the years. He was known by many as the Mayor of Keystone at the Crossing. Everyone whom he met became a friend, as he never met a stranger. His ambitions and zest for life were contagious, his dreams were more than many of us could fathom, but he followed them and made them reality. We learned from him many things, dignity, love, imagination, compassion, inspiration, giving, learning, teaching, but most of all you taught us all to live to our full potential! We all love you and miss you. John graduated from Carmel High School and Fashion Institute of Design & Merchandising in California. He was a member of Central Christian Church. Visitation will be held Wednesday, September 22, 2010 from 3:00 p.m. until 7:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Fishers-Castleton Chapel, 9900 Allisonville Rd., with funeral services to follow at 7:00 p.m. Graveside services will be Saturday, September 25, 2010 at 2:30 p.m. at Maple Grove Cemetery in Clay City, IN. John is survived by his mother, Dr. Kathleen B. Speicher, MD; father, Robert F. (Janis) Oldham; brother, R. Bruce Oldham; nephew, Max Oldham; half-brother, Steven Oldham; step-siblings, Bill, Jack and Megan Johnson, Stephanie Tolle, Stephen and John Speicher, and Susan Lee; uncles, Leo Brough, Darrell (Sue) Brough and six cousins; and niece Elisa Tolle. Memorial contributions may be made to Light the Night and/or Max Oldham Education Fund.
