“ Dick and my husband, Jim Helburn, were good friends and enjoyed their VCR movies and learning about all the new electronics together--also shopping for them. Dick always remembered me at Christmas time after Jim passed, and that has always meant a lot to me.

“ Our prayers and thoughts are with Wilma and family. We so enjoyed seeing him at church every week when we were still in Indiana. Dick helped so very much with the history of Eastgate Christian Church when we were preparing for the 50th Anniversary of the church. He continued to find more information even after the celebration. With grandchildren about the same age, we had a lot to talk about. And, of course, there are the sports. Sorry we cannot be there, but our thoughts are with you all.

“ Dick was a great help with my family genealogy. His gr grandmother Sarah Bebout Jacobs Harison was my gr, gr grandmother. We shared info and pictures but neither of us had pictures of Sarah. I will truly miss his emails and family updates. I do know from his emails that he truly loved his family and was so proud of them.
