“ We were very sorry to hear of Jonette’s passing. She was a dear friend to many. She had a beautiful smile that made you feel like you were her best friend as soon as u met her. She was funny and happy. Life as it goes wasn’t always easy, but she always seemed to make the best out of it. She’s was one of my mother in laws (Louise Hayes) best friends in the world. They shared so many memories. We all are sad we could not attend Jonette’s funeral. What we do know is that she will not be forgotten and will live on in our hearts. Our sincere heart felt sympathy to all her family.

“ So very heartbroken to learn of Jonette's passing. She and my mom, Donna Fields, were friends for many years as they started working for RCA at the same time. Jonette and family provided me with a "2nd home" while my mom worked 2nd shift and I've always considered Jonette to be my "2nd mom". Wishing Jonette's entire family peace during this sad, sad time. -Jodi Fields
