“ My name is Marty and I was a volunteer from hospice. I visited Joseph once a week and we had many enjoyable conversations about life and his family whom he loved very much. I was honored to visit with Joseph and share his life stories. He asked me what my given name was and I told him Martha. He responded with “ Hmm Joseph, Mary and Martha! Only one missing is Jesus! He then said “I think he will be here soon!” I will miss our visits. You are a very blest family. I pray for peace for the Sprouse family. Marty Kivett 🙏😊
