“ I had the true honor of working with Joe at St. V for 6 years. WHAT A GUY! Joe always had a smile, always had the time to help and his kindness was quick. When each of my daughters went to college Joe was sure to arm them with mace and a whistle. He was always thinking of others. I know he will be missed by many- especially his dear family. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ I worked with Joe from 2014 until 2021 at St. Vincent's. Joe was such an outstanding leader and friend. Even after I left, Joe reached out to me at least a couple times a year, and it always made me smile. My sincere condolences to his family. You all will be in my prayers.

“ At times like the sad passing of Joe, it's good to remember and know that the life lived in the service of others, by the departed was indeed a worthwhile life.

Although Joe will be missed by family and friends, they surely know Joe fulfilled himself with his caring and sharing talents through his work as a law enforcement officer.

For our deceased fellow, I offer this prayer: Eternal Rest, grant unto Joseph Richard Thompson, O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon him. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.
