“ My deepest condolences to Joe's family for your loss. Early in my career at Golden Rule I learned quickly that Joe was one of the most talented, loyal and dedicated employees we had in our IT Department. He was always willing to go the extra mile and do it with a smile. I will miss his friendship and his sense of humor. May the family and friends of Joe find peace, love and joy in his memories.

“ I was deeply sadden to hear the news about Joe aka "The Candy Man"

As the candy he used to have set out, including "the good stuff," that he would hide for me he was a sweet person who will be missed.

My thoughts are with the Wagner family, and to please let us know when a service is scheduled.

“ I didn't know Joe well, but he and I struck up a conversation not too long ago about your cat, Hattie and my dog, Mia. That small connection with him made me smile. We talked about setting up an online lunch for people to join just to say hi to everyone at this crazy time. He seemed like a very nice guy, and I'm sorry we didn't get that online lunch set up sooner so I could meet him in "person". My sympathies to your family at this difficult time. I'm sure you have wonderful memories of him, and those memories will get you through the harder days.

“ My deepest sympathy to your family. I worked with Joe for many years. I hosted a weekly call that Joe joined and he always was the first to say good morning. He always remembered my birthday and if we talked about it on the call, he would sign. Joe was the kindest man and definitely one of a kind. I will miss his morning greetings. Prayers for peace and comfort during this difficult time. Deepest sympathy!
