May 10, 2004 - January 30, 2019

Joshua T. Brown,

14, of Fishers, passed away January 30, 2019. He was born May 10, 2004 in Cincinnati, Ohio to Edmund Wade and Cynthia A. Brown. Joshua was a student of Northpoint Homeschool and a member of Holy Spirit at Geist Catholic Church. He enjoyed playing CYO basketball and for the Northpoint Panthers.

Visitation will be Tuesday, February 5, 2019 from 4:00 p.m. until 7:00 p.m. at Holy Spirit at Geist Catholic Church, 10350 Glaser Way, Fishers. The visitation on Tuesday is a celebration of Joshua's life for all of us. Please feel free to wear clothes or items that you know Joshua would love, jerseys, favorite hoodies, etc. Have some fun for Joshua! A Mass of Christian Burial will be held Wednesday at 11:00 a.m. at Holy Spirit at Geist Catholic Church, with visitation one hour prior.

Joshua is survived by his loving parents, Wade and Cynthia Brown; siblings, Jordan (Chris) Wood, Jacob (Ariel) Brown, Jonathan Brown, Jared (Alex) Brown, Jeffrey Brown, Jack Brown, Jesse Brown and Josephine Brown; grandparents, Joseph and Lynn Southall and Sharon Naeve; and nephews, Michael and Moses Wood. Joshua was preceded in death by his grandfathers, Edmund W. Brown III and Roy H. Naeve.

Joshua loved NP Homeschool. He loved his friends and classmates, his teachers and his teammates. We know he would want donations in lieu of flowers (he wasn't really a flower guy) to support his homeschool family.

Please consider this in his memory. Contributions may be sent to NP Homeschool, 7399 Shadeland Ave., Indianapolis, IN 46250.

“ I remember Josh having a good time at the Mason pool in the shallow end, and in the sand area. I remember him tagging along with Jack and Catherine in their play. He was a sweet little guy, with lots of spunk. I am grateful that I got to watch him play some basketball recently. What a gift.

“ It seems like yesterday that you, Cynthia, were pregnant with Joshua and reaching out to help me in my moment of crisis. I barely knew you then, but when you heard about a fellow homeschool mom with cancer and undergoing chemo you quickly offered to take my 2 young boys (6 and 8 years old). Even though you had a houseful of kids and were pregnant at the time, you did not hesitate to put the needs of someone else above your own. My boys remember visiting after Joshua was born and that he was a precious baby that everyone doted on and called Joshie! Joshua was blessed to be born into such a loving family and to have amazing parents. I don't remember much of those days and baby Joshua (I had chemo brain) but I know I came to love and admire you and your family. Since you left Cincinnati, I have loved your Facebook posts and seeing how your children have grown into beautiful adults. May God hold all of you even tighter now until you all reunited with Joshua in heaven. Love from all the Bort family.

“ I remember watching Josh sit in awe of his big sister getting all pampered over for her big day before the wedding. It was such genuine love and I remember thinking what a beautiful gift it was going to be to become a part of such a special family. We love each of you and are praying for God's hand to be upon each one of you in this great loss. My heart breaks for you!

Wade is a leader and a man that I worked for many years ago. Wade is instrumental in who I am today. He always told us about his kids and they always came first, even in the heat of the battle we call business. In fact, he often made all who worked for him feel like his extended family. Our prayers and thoughts are with you! Randy and Rose Swift
