

Joyce Sink

September 5, 1936 - August 12, 2020

Joyce Sink,

83, passed away on August 12, 2020. Joyce was born September 5, 1936 in Peru, Indiana, to the late Homer C. and Mary L. Lennon Cripe, and moved to Flora, Indiana in early childhood. She graduated from Flora High School in 1954. She went on to attend Butler University graduating with a degree in elementary education.

Joyce met the love of her life, Richard “Dick” Sink while in elementary school in Flora. Dick and Joyce were married at the First Christian Church in Flora on October 28, 1956. After completing two years at Butler University, Joyce accompanied Dick on his military assignments with the United States Air Force and upon their return to Indiana, she completed her degree. Dick preceded her in death December 31, 2016.

Joyce was a beloved and devoted wife, mother and grandmother. She lived for her family and genuinely enjoyed watching her kids and grandkids compete in sports and perform in dance. Joyce and Dick were avid fans of Butler basketball and St. Louis Cardinals baseball. Joyce loved church and engaging in Bible studies. She had a kind heart toward all those she met. She was a life-long member of the Christian Church, most recently an active member of Geist Christian Church in Indianapolis.

Joyce is survived by sons, Daren Sink, Dan Sink (Rita); six grandchildren, Craig (Kelsey), Brandon (Annalisa), Connor, Hannah Marshall (Caleb), Nick and Nate; and one great-grandchild, Owen.

A private family funeral service will take place at Shirley Brothers Fishers-Castleton Chapel, 9900 Allisonville Road, Fishers. Friends and family may use this link to live-stream the service at <https://client.tribucast.com/tcid/94786007>. Memorial contributions may be made in Joyce's honor to the Geist Christian Church. www.shirleybrothers.com.

“Joyce was a uniquely beautiful woman - inside and out! I enjoyed the opportunity to visit with her at Allisonville Meadows and was amazed at how delightful, happy, and grateful she ALWAYS was. We loved having Dick and Joyce in our Bible Study group at GCC over the years they were able to be active members. My prayers are with you all as you gather and celebrate a life that was such a blessing to us all.
