“ What seems like a lifetime ago Joyce and I were in sorority together. She was the most lovely, dear person. I remember meetings at her split level house and when I have passed by it over the years have wondered if she and Byron still lived there. I have a photo of the entire group at a sorority dance that shows what a beautiful looking couple they were. It's so true that life is what happens while we are making other plans. Where does the time go? Thoughts are with her family during this sad time.
