

Juanita Karch Heyer Monschein

July 22, 1913 - March 12, 2016

Juanita Karch Heyer Monschein

102, of Indianapolis, passed away peacefully with her beloved Nurse Rocky by her side March 12, 2016, at Greenbriar Assisted Living where she had been a resident for one year.

Juanita was of the Pentecostal Faith, and a “people person who never met a stranger”. She had an early career in photo finishing and was a proud 29 year Sears employee beginning at the Alabama Street location and retiring in 1978 from Castleton. She was a past member of Methodist Hospital White Cross Guild and, on behalf of her husband Richard, was active in the Parkinson’s Support Group.

The only child of Thomas Karch and Elizabeth Ruffy Karch, she was born in Farina, Illinois July 22, 1913 on her maternal grandparents’ farm. She lived most of her life on the east side of Indianapolis and attended PS 62 and Arsenal Tech High School.

She was preceded in death by her parents, step mother Bessie Alderson Davisson, son-in-law Paul Oberting, and husband Richard Monschein. She is survived by her daughters Donna Oberting and Mary Scahill (Chuck); grandchildren Kim (Rick) Nathan, Mark (Lisa) Oberting, Charles Oberting, David (Maraia) Scahill, Cheryl (Eric) Branock, Sun-Nita (Greg) Tardy; 8 great-grandchildren and 4 great-great grandchildren.

Visitation Friday, March 18, 2016 9:30am-11:00am, Shirley Brothers
Washington Memorial Chapel, 9606 E. Washington St. 11:30 am graveside service follows at Memorial Park Cemetery.

The family is grateful for the love and support of her many friends including her “new” friends at Greenbriar. The family wishes to thank her ever attentive cardiologist, Howard T Morrison MD, Nurse Rocky and the staff of Greenbriar, and special friends and care givers Eithyel and MeeLun.
