“ Judy was my mom's first cousin, and I remember as a kid being so impressed that Judy had gone skydiving! And of course, she drove the coolest car. She was unique, she was kind, she was SO smart. I'll miss her.

I remember a sweet, tiny girl who came to visit her grandmother (my Aunt Luvena) who lived next door. She was such fun to play with and I will always remember her with fondness and love.

“ For over 25 years, Judy, Jonell, Mom Nellie and I, took an annual trip to fun places...usually where there was music, but not always. We went to Nashville, TN, Nashville, IN, Branson, Lexington, etc. etc. Judy always made meals interesting since she didn't eat cheese. We liked the look on the pizza man's face when Judy ordered pizza with no cheese. Judy was finicky and funny. She loved deeply and always made me feel special. I am so glad we were able to share so many fun and wonderful times together.
