“ Omg there r so many memories with Judy it is hard to pick one out we all had so much fun with her she was a great cook a very loving caring person always there for you with good advise we all r sure going to miss her she was beautiful inside and out. Judy was a very good skier and she taught me how to and we was on lake monroe and a storm was coming up with big waves and there we was on the lake skiing and oh my gosh she fell and I was afraid to let go of the tow rope they kept saying let go finally I did and they yelled put ski up in the air finally got that done and they brought the boat around to pick us up but a boat went by and almost hit us and that was the last time I skied but we had a blast before the storm came. Loved all of the stories she would tell about her Dad. Like I said we all had a great time with her. RIP SWEET LADY till we meet again love yas more
