“ I just learned of Julia's death. We had been close friends when she lived in Richmond. Julia & I met at Third Presbyterian Church, were in a ladies Bible study together, lived in adjoining neighborhoods, and she was a bridesmaid in my wedding. She visited in our home on occasional visits back to VA, after moving to IN. Gradually we lost touch and I had not heard from her in several years. This morning, I "googled" her name and found her obituary. I was stunned and saddened. Julia was a lovely Christian and modeled and kind and gentle spirit. Beth Campbell Bagley

“ I just learned of Julia's passing. Julia and I worked together at the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond where she was truly respected for her knowledge, dedication and hard work. We traveled together to many Federal Reserve locations for a project we were responsible for, and I got to know her very well. She was one of our first telecommuters and paved the way for others to work virtually. She was anxious to move home and be closer to her family. I know she has lots of support, particularly from her brother. I miss her dearly.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Julia while she was at the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond. I was so sorry to hear of her passing. Her parents named her well. She exemplified 'grace' in all aspects of her life. I know you will miss her dearly. She often spoke of her family and how much they meant to her. She was very proud of you all.

“ Family was very important to Julia. Her aunt Sue, who preceded her in passing, had obtained from the original Huddleston family home in Goodview, VA a pie safe, which had been a wedding gift from Julia's great, great grandfather to his wife to be. The piece probably dates to the mid to late 1800s. When I visited Julia during the summer of 2014, I asked if she had any interest in having the piece. Enthusiastically, she replied that yes it would mean much to her to be able to have this piece of Huddleston history. I was a little surprised by this response understanding her health issues, but that was the essence of Julia! We were in the process of making it happen when I received word of Julia's passing. Sue and I loved her dearly as we did her brothers John and Paul and family. We were moved by Julia's difficult, but courageous life.

“ We became instant friends when we met through work. We both rediscovered knitting at the same time. I learned so much from her. She initiated our membership in the local guild. Julia convinced me to go on a knitting retreat once. I have fond memories of our weekend enjoying autumn weather in the mountains of VA and knitting by the fire in the lodge. We gradually lost touch since she moved to IN although I thought of her often. When we could connect, we had so much catching up to do that our phone calls tended to last at least 2 hours. She will always be one of my very best friends. I am sorry for your loss.
