

Julia "Judy" L. Kane

November 16, 1946 - December 4, 2017

Julia "Judy" L. Kane, 71, of Indianapolis, passed away December 4, 2017 at her home where she wanted to be with her family and three kitties, with a worn out, much-used forgiving heart. Judy was born in 1946 in Bloomington, IN, to the late Lester and Dola Hayes Crouch. She was a graduate of University High School, Bloomington, and received a degree in Floral Design, designing flowers for work and pleasure.

In Judy's younger years, she enjoyed fast cars (specifically Corvettes) and drag racing on Highway 46 in Spencer, IN. She was incredibly creative and artistic and loved to paint, draw and write poetry. Her creativity and imagination lent her to be a great story teller; when she was not telling a story, she was telling a joke. No one will forget her "clothes pin people" she created. Of course, it is hard to forget someone who gave you so much to remember. Judy was not much of a culinarian, but she could take any frozen solid beef roast and make it tender and juicy. Unfortunately, none of us have the recipe because she constantly changed the recipe based on what she had in her pantry. Her motto, 250 degrees for three hours for any frozen protein. Her deviled eggs will truly be missed by all. You may be gone from our sight, but you are never gone from our hearts.

Judy was an active and dedicated Jehovah's Witness for 37 years, Although confined to a wheel chair for 13 years, she wrote letters to others telling of God's Kingdom.

Visitation will be Saturday, December 9, 2017 from 11:00 a.m. until the time of service at 12:00 noon at Shirley Brothers Washington Memorial Chapel, 9606 E. Washington St., Indianapolis, IN 46229.

Judy is surrounded by her loving husband of 46 years, Robert "Bob" Kane; three children, Leslie Cole, Christina (Peter Clemens) Kane and Tony (Kelly) Kane. She was a proud grandparent of four strong and independent granddaughters, Michal Fortner, Taylor Miller, Megan Roberts and Morgan Roberts. She adored her fun loving and energetic great-grandchildren, Zoe, Ellie, Maverick, Oliver and Jude. She is also survived by her sister, Marilyn Ring. A brother, Richard Crouch, preceded her in death.
