“ I had the pleasure of meeting June on two occasions when I accompanied my mother, Dorothy Wray on visits to her. The first was in 2009 when June and Sam were still living in Clearwater, Florida. It was the first time I had met June although I had heard her name and stories about her from my mom ever since I could remember! She was wonderful; so interested in getting to know me, and delighting in telling stories about the escapades her and my mom had in earlier years.

June took us out to lunch on that trip. She found a great restaurant for us. We sat outside, had the prettiest view and ate wonderful seafood! I can still see her smiling, laughing and enjoying old times with mom. That's how I see June now --happy, smiling and starting into a big laugh over old times.

A few years later, mom and I visited June in Indiana where she was living with May and her husband. Sam had passed on but I could tell their love affair continued. It was one for the books.

If I've done it right, I've attached a couple of pictures of that trip to Indiana. One with mom, May, May's husband (so sorry not to recall his name) and June, and one just with mom and June. Best friends til the end. RIP Smiling June.

“ Back about 1947 my husband's cousin (Sam Dalton) came to Dayton, Ohio to visit. My husband convinced him and I convinced June to go on a double date with us. That was the beginning of "Sam and June". After that we spent many fun-filled nights with them, they were always so much fun to be with and I remember those times with warm thoughts. Goodbye dear friend and "Rest in Peace".

“ 2 Corinthians 5:6-8 So we are always of good courage. We know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord, for we walk by faith, not by sight. Yes, we are of good courage, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord.

June, I loved your hot fudge Sunday's and you spoiling us when we came to visit. We will miss you. You now get to enjoy Heaven.

Love, Tony
