

June Allen York

March 29, 1917 - June 16, 2014

June Margaret Allen was born March 29, 1917, in Detroit, Michigan. She passed into the loving arms of our Lord on June 16, 2014, at Miller's Merry Manor East.

As a young girl, she and her siblings moved to Indianapolis with their parents, Cecil and Cordelia Kendall Allen. After high school, she worked as a waitress. Ms. Allen and her mother later ran a cafeteria line for local factory workers. She found her niche at Naval Avionics, where she worked as an electronics assembler and supervisor, retiring in 1979. Whatever the job, she truly enjoyed her work as well as her involvement with the Ladies Auxiliary of the American Legion.

She was a fiery redhead with an infectious laugh and a generous heart. She also enjoyed music, and married the love of her life, Fred L. York, who often played with his band in local establishments.

After the passing of her husband and illness of her care-giver and nephew, Roger Allen, the compassionate staff at Miller's became her new family in 2006. She truly came to love them. Lin and family send their heartfelt thanks to the Miller's staff for the loving, thoughtful care "June Bug" received.

Survivors include a step-daughter, Jean Fleck, of Vandalia, Ohio, and several nieces and nephews.

Calling will be from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m., Friday, June 20, 2014, at Shirley Brothers Funeral Home, 9606 East Washington Street, Indianapolis, Indiana. Funeral at 6:00 p.m.
