“ Justin will be terribly missed. I remember when I was a little girl my family went to watch Justin as he took his 1,000th skydive jump! He was fearless! I loved watching the skydiving videos of him and his friends! — I also always appreciated that Justin made the trip to my wedding (after telling me he probably would not make it because of cancer treatment). He still made it a point to be there and show his love. That meant the world to me that he drove several hours each way to be there!! I love you, Justin!
