“ Bob and family, the celebration of life you arranged for Karen told all the wonderful person she was and how missed she will be. The beauty of the first song you played had every hand raised to wipe an eye time and time again.

Karen always appeared so shy upon her or our arrival, but the beautiful, welcoming smile was always in place. We always wish we could turn time back, but we know we cannot, and must hold our precious memories close to our hearts as we move on in life.

Love to you all, Cousin Virgie Cornwell
