“ remember a halloween party my parents had and this person dressed like a hobo kept opening the living room curtains after mom would close them. this went on all evening and when the evening was drawing to a close and everyone showed their face. mom couldn't believe that katherine was the life of the party that night. lots of memories of this wonderful lady. I know mom and her had a great reunion. Hopefully dad won't cheat at cards from now on. Love ya and will miss you.
