“ You were so much to so many people. I couldn't have asked for a better mother in law. I will never relate to the terrible mother in law stories many people share. You were truly one of a kind and there was never a time you didnt make me feel like the in law part was just a formality. We were family. We are family. I pray your memory lives on through us all and that your grandbaby has many people to help her get to know you more as she grows up unfortunately without you. Nevertheless your granddaughter loves her mammy so very much. We will forever cherish the times we did have you. Always laughter until our cheeks were sore and our bellies felt it. Love and hugs forever in our hearts Kathy, a mother, a mammy, and a sister.

“ Oh, Kathy, my heart broke when I heard you went to Heaven! This Earth has lost one of the greatest spirits ever! There were not too many memories I have of you that didn't involve "belly laughs". You were truly one of the funniest, loving and REAL people I have ever met. Godspeed. Much Love!

Where do I begin, Kathy and I grew up together on 9th street. We have been friends for more than 50 years...so many memories I could write a book... I will never forget you my beautiful friend more like a family member. My heart is broken but I will always cherish those special moments we shared back in the day...Sleep in heavenly peace, no more pain and suffering, your a Free Bird..climbing that stair way to heaven. 🙏❤️ u
