“ Kenny always had a huge garden and several fruit trees which meant lots of produce and what to do with it. Cuz you don't waste food. So if you came to visit, you were going home with lots of canned goods and whatever was picked fresh that day. I have many fond memories of card and board games at the kitchen table filled with lots of teasing and laughs. His front door was always open for a visit. He was a bit stubborn about but always had a big heart. If he heard someone was in need, he was first in line to give food or assistance. No one went hungry on his watch. Kenny, thanks for the memories. Susie Hartfiel
