“ I remember fondly Ken and I working on the "new" Calvary Church. We got to know each other well, we told many stories about our church and family lives.

The weight of a heart can only be measured, by what was lost, that once was treasured.

Knew him intimately from Nashville to Indianapolis - wherever your steps have ended.

“ Mr. Green 's smile will always be remembered! He had such a "quiet" demeanor and wonderfully supportive spirit as he visited us at Washington Irving Elem. School #14.

Thanks (Ken) for all of your love and your support to Christie as she developed into being a GREAT SUPPORTIVE and LOVING teacher. Mrs. R. Elizabeth Odle (former principal)
