“ Ken was a wonderful co player in a number of Play a Part Shows done at Buck Creek Players Theater over the years. He rarely missed being part of those shows. He was very generous with his time talent, monetary, promotion for BCP since its beginnings. He and wife Cheryl were such great supporters of BCP in many ways. He leaves a legacy of sharing, caring, his life in life giving ways. His life touched the lives of hundreds of people over the years. His spirit lives on in those of us who knew and loved him. He surely will be the guardian angel from heaven's vantage point still sharing his true essence by spirit, caring self. God bless you Ken and thank you for the gifts you have shared with me and many. Sending prayers for Ken's wonderful family, he will be sorely missed. His spirit lives in all who knew and loved him. Evelyn Brown (partner in BCP shows. what tun.
