“ It's been almost a year and not a single day goes by that i do not think about you. Your son is 4 now and talks about you and told me the other day he wishes you could play with him one more time. Kevin i promise you one way or another justice will be served.

“ I will always love you, for so long I was anger and unforgiving and now my chance to even make amends are no longer. I will never be able to tell you I forgive you and I love you and that hurts me to my soul. You didn't deserve what happened and its sad that there will probably be no justice. I'm sorry for being so angry and unforgiving but as a girl an only girl I really needed my father.

“ My Heart is going to take sometime to heal from the loss of my brother. Missing his smile, laughter, saying I love you sis, sharing what ever he was going through, and also sharing the word of God. I am praying for God to continue to walk with me and my family, to bring us closer to him. Kevin is resting in the arms of our heavenly father where there is no more pain sickness or suffering, only joy forever more. Although others may forget about you I will not. This place won't be the same without you, but I know that I will see you again. I will always love you. Family, lets keep trusting, believing and walking with God, he has a plan for us all.

*Love Always,
