“ I love you Kora! I will always remember our fun memories at the cabin when we used to go hiking and play with our stuffed animal turtles. I will never forget the many games of cut throat uno as well as skip bo and spoons. I will also remember coloring and playing monopoly or that one thanksgiving where we hid in my closet and secretly ate candy at midnight. Or that one time Marmee paid us a dollar to be quiet for an hour and it worked. Thank you for all the amazing memories, oh and also introducing me to ramen! You were the best cousin ever!

“ I want to thank Kora Joy for the life-saving gifts she gave in her death. Added to her many gifts of friendship, sportsmanship and witness for Christ that she gave to so many, she was not done after death. She gave one last time.

As a recipient family of the gift of life, I know what it means to a family who has been waiting for an organ transplant. My wife had kidney failure and was dependent upon dialysis to live. Her greatest desire was to have children but she could not carry children to full term. But after receiving a kidney transplant from an unknown donor she was able to carry children. She gave birth to two boys, and saw them grow to adulthood. It changed our lives forever. Those boys are Kora Joy's second cousins.
