“ Jesus, where do I start. As I'm typing this I'm in shocking, painful, confusing tears. Kile I don't know how to start this memory speech but I'll just write as I think of all the laid back, cool calm and collective memories I've experienced with the young intelligent and peaceful soul of yours. Best memory I'll never forget is when me and my brother got you hired onto our job and witnessed a hard working individual make $800+ on his 1st check just in one week. The excitement was a thrill. The happiness i seen that moment made everything fall greatly into place, great night with positive people. Wish I didn't have to end this but I promise brother you are not ever forgotten and gone in our hearts buddy. We all love you man and may you rest very well in peace bud. One love!

“ My best memories of Kyle is being at our house for days, or Anthony Wallace at his house, we went places together and Kyle was always happy and fun, a total sweetheart, my best memory is when we all went to Kings Island when the boys were younger, but no matter where we moved Kyle always made it a point to come around, he always called me Mom and always had a big hug from him and he was genuine showing his feeling for me, he'll always be in my thoughts, you may be gone but will forever be in my heart 😭
With all my love your other Mom Debbie Hinds ❤️

“ But if something can be lost, he thought, then its loss is always just a breath away. Then it's all but already gone.
Lets not take a moment for granted with those we love. Every smile, grin and hug.
They all mean so much.
I will treasure those I shared with Kyle.

Love always,
Earla Imel.
