“ We always enjoyed visiting with Alan at Lynn and Bill's Michigan lake house, and how he looked forward to Pat Brougham's arrival for a family gathering!

I think about Alan's piercing blue eyes, his special gifts, and how he called Lynn "girl". I am thankful for the good years he was able to share with his family and hope to light a candle now in his memory. Caring thoughts are with Bill and his family at this time, Susan Hoffman “ Alan will always hold a special place in my family's memories. Both of my children had the privilege of growing up with Alan at after school care with JoAnne Capodagli in the 90's.

No words can express the love and gratitude I have for JoAnne, Suzie, Tony, Billy and Alan and all the wonderful people I got to know from those years.

“ Alan liked to walk up from his father Bill’s and Lynn’s lakeshores home to see and visit with my husband Jim. It would not matter if I was there, it was all about Jim !! Did not matter to me as long as it made Alan happy which it did. I also loved that he called Lynn “girl”.

Dan and I will always remember Alan. He always wanted to know "Where's Dan?" He had questions for us, and we answered. He had a great laugh! I know he's with Sara, having lunch in heaven.

JoAnne, Molly, Emily and I offer our deep condolences on Alan’s passing. Our special memories are of him shooting basketballs and riding his big trike in the cul de sac always with a big smile on his face. Such a sweet man. Mimi Giles Hutchison

It was a joy to know Alan. We talked a lot about Michael Jordan being the best basketball player ever. He was a good friend. Mike Shirk

I have fond memories of Alan, from enjoying being his Den mom in Cub Scouts, to crazy canoe trips, and even being at little league games. Condolences to you, Joanne, and all of your family. Barb Ulrich

We always enjoy our visits with Bill and Lynn, and on occasions when Alan was there, or out to dinner, he was such an enjoyable, likable big kid. As noted by others, he was a guy's guy, and conversations and questions were all about Dayle, with whom he got along great. His loss creates in big void in life and he will be missed.
