“ I got to know Ramon way back in 1963 when I hired on to Eli Lilly in a department he was leaving. I, like just about everyone else, got his first name (well, middle name because I never knew what the L. stood for) wrong the first time we met and had the privilege of hearing the famous "I'm Ramon - please don't call me Ray" many times after that when new acquaintances would address him a "Ray." Ramon was a really good engineer but even a better communicator of stories, jokes and, usually funny, appropriate retorts when he didn't agree with another's statement - usually about a project he was working on at the time. He was a really good person and will be missed.

“ To Ramon's Family: We are saddened of the passing of Ramon. He has been such a friend over the years to so many of his Outlook Christian Church Family. The humor and hugs he shared will be missed but certainly not forgotten. Please accept our heartfelt condolences for your loss. Carmen & Tom Mock
