She courageously battled a rare form of cancer for the past five years. Lauren was a graduate of Lawrence North High School. She was an awesome mix of sass, smarts, strength, and fun.

Lauren is survived by her loving parents, Doug and Karen Hanawalt; brother, Jake Hanawalt; sister, Sara Hanawalt; paternal grandmother, Sonja Hanawalt; maternal grandmother, Emily Holland; and numerous aunts, uncles, and cousins. She also had many friends who loved her dearly.

All are invited to attend a Celebration of Life gathering on Thursday, August 5 anytime from 4-8PM at Daniels Vineyard located at 9061 N 700 W, McCordsville, Indiana, 46055.

Lauren always stood up for what she believed, and we knew she was going to change the world for the better. So in lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the Live Like Lauren Scholarship Fund: <https://msdltf.org/lt-livelikelauren/donate.html> . This scholarship will help keep her wishes alive by helping others and making the world a better place.

Final arrangements and care are entrusted to Shirley Brothers Fishers-Castleton Chapel.

“ I am so sorry to hear this news. I did not know Lauren well but I met her at The Hot Room doing yoga as we were both battling cancer. We connected on many occasions before or after class and I was so touched by her strength and perseverance. I prayed for her often knowing that I had lived a much longer life of 48 yrs when diagnosed and I prayed that she would find a way to beat this disease so that she had a chance to truly live the life she dreamed of. Lauren is a beautiful soul and even though I only knew her for a brief time, she truly touched my heart. Sending many prayers of love and healing to you and your entire family. God Bless.

“ *LoLo as we knew spent many nights at our house with our Granddaughter Taylor. One night they wanted the jacuzzi on and they had poured more then enough bubble bath in the water Consequently they called me because there was a problem and the bubbles were out of the tub and flowing into our bedroom.
