“"The Law", as I called him for no particular reason, was a sweet, caring, intelligent, and talented man, among other good things. He knew I was a fan of former Indiana Pacer Jalen Rose so for Jalen's entire tenure as a Pacer, Lawrence would send local news clippings to me in Louisville. I always appreciated that and to this day, still have the folder full of pictures and articles. He was a super nice guy and always a pleasure to be around. I wish him a peaceful eternal rest and his family/friends condolences at this difficult time. He will definitely be dearly missed. LONG LIVE THE LAW!

“ Lawrence was my uncle. He was a kind man with a wonderful sense of humor. I enjoyed our sports conversations and his many visits to Louisville. My hope is that he and Thelma are hand-in-hand in heaven. My deepest sympathy to all the Tindall family.
