

Lenora M. Sapp

September 6, 1928 - June 5, 2009

Lenora M. Sapp, 80, passed peacefully on June 5, 2009 in Carmel, Indiana. Born in Beatrice, Nebraska to Gladys and Lloyd Bledsaw, Lenora (Bledsaw) Sapp, graduated from Beatrice High School in 1946. Lenora is the loving mother of Jack Sapp, Cheyenne, WY, Jim Sapp, Carmel, IN and Judy Moyer, Sun City West, AZ. Lenora is the grandmother of 9 ♦ Julie, Keith, Lindsey, Ryan, Nicholas, Nathan, Christopher, Steven and Michelle. Living in Indiana for the last 9 years, Lenora was a member of Hazeldale Christian Church, and truly enjoyed spending time with her family and friends. Wife of the late Ray Sapp, Lenora often assisted in the family business, Sapp Bros Truck Stops in Omaha, NE, and was affectionately known for her social coordinating, as well as for her love for traveling, fitness, strawberry shakes and the Nebraska Cornhuskers. Lenora is preceded in death by her husband, Ray Sapp and her son, John Sapp. Visitation will be Monday, June 8 from 2:00 p.m. until the funeral service at 4:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Fishers-Castleton Chapel, 9900 Allisonville Road. Memorial contributions may be made to Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation, P.O. Box 6069, Dept. 95, Indianapolis, IN 46206-4980.