“Leonie was such an energetic and dedicated woman. I got to know her in her later years after Susan and I were married. She never turned me down when we asked her if she would like to go someplace. The past 6 or 7 years I have done her taxes, and prior to the time when her memory dimmed, the documentation she provided was exhaustive! We are still sorting through (and discarding) receipts and invoices dating back to the 1980's. Leonie loved her daughter and adopted me as her son. She loved her grandchildren and her great granddaughter. We could often get her to focus her attention when we showed her pictures of the 'baby'. We will miss you greatly Leonie but know that your faithfulness will be rewarded with the Grace of our Father and God. Milton
